Yanks On Leyte Driving Ahead Towards Ormoc

Japs Resist Stubbornly As Showdown Battle Develops In Philippines

JAPS SUFFER BIG DESTROYER LOSSES

By LEE VAN ATTA
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

GEN. MACARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS, Philippines, Nov. 13.—In the face of stubborn opposition, the American 24th infantry, battling to seize the Jap stronghold of Ormoc on Leyte Island, has "made good progress," General Douglas MacArthur said in a communique today, disclosing an important three-mile gain.

As they pushed ahead from their positions north of Ormoc, the 24th doughboys showed the Japs off the heights of Mount Cataboran, which dominate the North Ormoc corridor, the communique said.

Surge Forward

At the same time, other American forces, supported by tank and artillery fire, surged forward against the Japs on the road south of the village of Pinamopan, which recently fell into American hands.

Although the Japs have not attempted to break out of the sector, they have offered bitter resistance to the Yanks and have managed to sneak in reinforcements from neighboring islands.

The First Division cavalry, Gen. MacArthur disclosed, is meeting fierce resistance in the thick jungles of the Mt. Pina sector, but nonetheless is continuing to push forward.

As the ground troops forged ahead from the north, south and east, they were given ample support by Leyte-based fighters, including a bombing run on the town of Ormoc itself.

In this attack, heavy bombers dumped 62 tons of bombs on Jap supply dumps and defense installations, causing, according to Gen. MacArthur, "extensive damage."

At the same time, fighter planes whipped across the bay at Palompon while navy carrier planes made another strike against Jap shipping in Ormoc bay, knocking 13 Jap planes out of the air in what Gen. MacArthur said was their "last strike on shipping in Ormoc bay."

Battle For Metz Is Now Nearing Climax

By MAJOR PAUL C. RABORG
(Written Especially For International News Service)

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Lieut. Gen. George S. Patton's famous American 3rd Mechanized Army is smashing ahead to the north and south of Metz for hard-earned, bitterly resisted gains.

The American broadcasting station in Europe and the BBC from England report that a German evacuation of Metz has commenced. It is said that the roads to the east are jammed with horse-drawn vehicles and pedestrians. Remember, that is not an official statement from any Allied military headquarters. The BBC also calls attention to the fact that it may be totally a civilian evacuation.

Metz To Be Devastated

In all wars in all civilized countries, when any city is undergoing or about to suffer a terrific and destructive bombardment, the civilians are withdrawn. That withdrawal does not of necessity in any sense mean that Germany expects Metz to be captured. The evacuation would be merely for humanitarian reasons.

British Drive Ahead In Italy

ROME, Nov. 13.—(INS)—Armored infantry of the British Eighth Army in Italy early today smashed its way across the Ghibia Canal in a drive toward the key city of Ravenna.

At the same time other Eighth Army forces fanned out northwest of liberated Forlì for minor gains in the face of bitter Nazi resistance. The German Luftwaffe moved into action again with an attack against the Americans on the U. S. Fifth Army front but damage was reported as slight.

The Yanks held their initiative in positions south of Bologna which kept the jittery Nazi defenders on the alert with patrol activity.

Seek To Restrict Holiday Traveling

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—(INS)—Col. J. Monroe Johnson, director of the Office of Defense Transportation, today asked all government agencies and private employment agencies to refrain from granting vacation leave or time-off to employees where intercity travel will be involved, from December 15 through January 8.

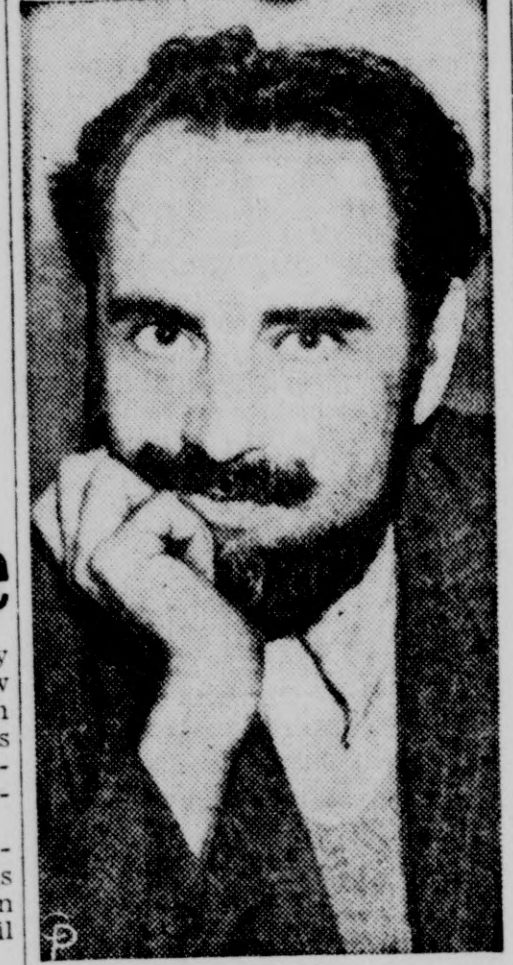

Johnson also requested government and private business to make special efforts to cut down all business travel during this period to the extent that such travel could be deferred without impairing the war effort.

The transportation chief said holiday travel must be held down to prevent interference with movement of military and essential passenger traffic which has become heavier during the past year.

Supreme Allied Effort Is Nearing To Smash Nazis

Germans Given Warning That Final Decisive Battle Is Approaching

By KINGSBURY SMITH
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

LONDON, Nov. 13.—The greatest military cataclysm in all European history today was moving toward its grand climax.

Recent statements by Prime Minister Winston Churchill and Premier Stalin make it evident that a supreme allied effort will be made this winter to deliver a final crushing blow against Nazi Germany.

Churchill's prediction in Paris over the week-end that victory in Europe may come within six months was seen in London diplomatic circles as a very definite indication that the final, stupendous clash of arms is not far off.

Last Minute Nazi Effort

The sudden delivery of Adolf Hitler's latest proclamation, warning the German people that their very existence is at stake now, was viewed as a final desperate move.

Himmler Orders 'Fight To Last Man'

LONDON, Nov. 13.—(INS)—Gestapo Chief Heinrich Himmler today issued a "fight to the last man" order saying that any officer or soldier fleeing from the battlefield was to be shot immediately, according to Moscow radio.

"Anyone who flees from the battlefield is to be shot by the first comrade. An officer who refuses to shoot his soldiers is to be shot himself and a fleeing officer may be shot by any soldier," said Himmler's order.

It added that wounded soldiers who abandoned their arms during retreat would lose for good their right to leave and to tobacco rations while others who abandoned weapons during retreat were to be shot.

Moscow said this report of Himmler's order was pieced together from notes found on dead and captured German officers.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—(INS)—The treasury department said today that it has formally petitioned the navy department to transfer the December 2 Army-Navy football game from Annapolis, Md., to either Philadelphia or New York as an aid to the war bond sales drive.

Ted R. Gamble, head of the treasury's war finance division, disclosed that the request for the shift was made by his office, the plan being to make the gridiron contest a "war bond game" with a large number of seats going to purchasers of bonds.

Russian Forces Drawing Closer Around Budapest

Heavy Guns Of Red Army Are Being Brought To Bear Upon City

NEW ADVANCES MADE BY REDS

By NATALIA RENE
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

MOSCOW, Nov. 13.—Russian artillery prepared today to blast a path of blazing destruction down the streets of Budapest.

Front line dispatches, revealed that Gen. Rodion Y. Malinovsky's Second Ukrainian Army has scored an important victory in an infantry battle north of Czegled, also told how the outskirts of Budapest have been brought within range of Soviet field artillery.

Big Guns In Action

Heavy guns of the Red Army were being brought to bear upon the city. It was apparent the Russians are preparing to lay down a bombardment into the streets of Budapest.

German forces, guarding approaches to the Hungarian capital, were routed on a 20-mile front above Czegled, a railway city 28 miles southeast of Budapest.

(Nazi military authorities, meanwhile, admitted that Russian troops have entered Jaszbereny, a railway junction 35 miles due east of Budapest. The German News agency, headed by BBC, reported the heavily defended town had been entered by the Red Army.)

Malinovsky's men were within 19 miles of the city.

Armored spearheads of General Rodion Y. Malinovsky's Second Ukrainian Army overran the town of Monor on the vital Budapest-Cegled railway, and in Northern Hungary the Russians again cut the Budapest-Miskolc line linking the enemy's Czechoslovakian and Hungarian defenses. Monor is 10 miles south-east of Budapest.

Towns Taken

The Moscow communique revealed that Mezőkövesd, on the Miskolc line, had been captured.

Third Army Is Only Five Miles From Metz Now

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

WITH THE U. S. THIRD ARMY IN FRANCE, Nov. 13.—(INS)—Troops of the United States Third Army under Lieut. Gen. George S. Patton, Jr., pushed to within five miles of Metz today, inching toward the great fortress city on the Moselle in a three-way pincer drive.

American units swept into the De Coin-Surselle area and the De Koecking forest against stubborn opposition and despite extremely bad winter weather. The Germans appeared to be withdrawing their forces into Metz proper but there were no signs of any plans to abandon the city.

Artillery Increases

Enemy artillery resistance increased but there appeared to be some let-up in infantry opposition. The Germans blew up dams and canals throughout the battle area in an effort to impede the American advance.

(Editor's note: An official German communique admitted American penetration of Thionville and described Metz as the "center of gravity" of all western front fighting.)

Cavalry patrols screened the country three miles ahead of the United States 26th Infantry division, while the latter punched into De Koecking forest, which lies three miles due east of Chateau Salins, the pivotal fortress point guarding Metz.

Unconfirmed reports placed the American Fourth Armored Division near Bernerling, 12 miles north-east of Salins.

Snow, rain and overcast prevailed throughout the front, but the Americans continued to push ahead, scooping up 1,211 prisoners in the last 24 hours.

Indian Troops Are Close To Kalemoy

KANDY, Ceylon, Nov. 13.—(INS)—Troops of the 5th Indian Division today pressed to within 10 miles of the village of Kalemoy, vital Japanese defense point controlling the main route north from Tamu to the island's capital, Colombo.

Smashing through the Chin hills, the Indian forces cleared the enemy from the stockades, two strong points on the road east from Tiddim. East African units also were advancing on Kalemoy and had the town under artillery fire after swift advances down the Kale and Kabaw valleys.

North of Bhamo, the eastern defense hinge of the Japanese line blocking the path to Central Burma, heavy fighting was reported in progress with the British 36th division hammering against increased enemy resistance. The British force is driving within seven miles of Naba Junction where the main Myitkyna-Rangoon railway curves west to Indaw.

Ethel Barrymore Taken To Hospital

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—(INS)—Suffering from pneumonia and a cardiac condition, Ethel Barrymore, the "First Lady of the American Stage," was taken to a hospital today from the home of her daughter, where she had been under treatment for an attack of grippe. Her condition is reported as "fair."

The 65-year-old actress had shown apparent improvement and progress yesterday, but a pulmonary congestion developed this morning, together with chills, a temperature of 103 and a pulse of 120, her physician, Dr. Louis R. Kaufman announced.

The attack of grippe forced Miss Barrymore to cancel her Friday and Saturday appearances in "Embezzled Heaven," marking the first time in 50 years that she was unable to go through with a scheduled performance in a New York City theater.

GIRL FATALLY HURT

BUTLER, Pa., Nov. 13.—(INS)—Injuries received when the automobile in which she was riding failed to negotiate a curve in Buffalo township yesterday, took the life of Anne Irene Confer, 19, of Brackridge, according to a coroner's report today.

Many Rumors As To Hitler's Whereabouts

By CHARLES A. SMITH
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

LONDON, Nov. 13.—Deep mystery today shrouded the whereabouts of Adolf Hitler following delivery of a gloomy war proclamation, allegedly his own but read by Heinrich Himmler. A wave of rumors concerning the Reich fuhrer's fate swept Germany as well as Allied nations.

The proclamation apparently was issued for the main purpose of combatting the spreading belief that something has happened to Hitler. There was nothing startling or new in its text.

It adhered to the recent general pattern of Nazi propaganda, mentioning final victory only once, against describing the war as being waged to defend Europe against the East and frequently employing such phrases as "ultimate success" and "preservation of our people."

Mystery Story

London newspapers played the proclamation as almost a mystery story, pointing out that it was the second within a month that Hitler failed to deliver an address personally. The other was issued October 18 when the people's army was called up for duty.

The latest proclamation, like its immediate predecessor, was aired over radio Berlin, by Himmler, appearing before an audience in Munich. Himmler was introduced by Paul Giesler, the Munich gauleiter. Hitler has not been heard publicly.

Vets Observe Armistice Day

Veterans of Three Wars Commemorate 26th Anniversary Of End Of World War One

PARADE THROUGH BUSINESS SECTION

Veterans of three wars joined in the annual observance here of Armistice Day, Saturday evening, when the 26th anniversary of the end of hostilities in World War One was observed with solemnity. A memorial service in honor of the dead of last war and the present one being conducted at the County Honor Roll at the Court House, followed by a parade through the business district. This was followed by a grand ball at The Cathedral for the veterans of World War One and Two.

Gold Star mothers, who lost their sons in the last war and the current conflict were guests of honor on the reviewing stand for the parade, which had been erected on the north side of Washington street, between Mill street and Apple Way. City and county officials also occupied the stand, and a place of honor was given to Jimmy Fletcher, disabled veteran of World War One. As the parade passed the reviewing stand, Chief Marshal Walter G. Dietterle and the various division marshals fell out and joined in the review.

Memorial Service Held

At 7 p. m., just before the parade formed, brief memorial services were held.

Patton's Forces Battle Ahead In 'Greater Reich'

Bad Winter Weather Encountered As Yanks Smash Forward Near Metz

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

WITH THE U. S. THIRD ARMY IN FRANCE, Nov. 13.—Lieut. Gen. George S. Patton's Third Army forces battled their way today through determined enemy opposition and bad winter weather after seizing control of a broad region in the Metz area claimed by Hitler in 1940 as part of the "Greater Reich."

The advancing Yanks found signs on battle-scarred villages in the Metz area, left behind by the Nazis, which heightened the impression they were in the heart of the Reich, rather than France.

Prisoners, many of them members of the SS (Elite Guard) panzer outfit, admitted freely they were fighting only to keep the Allies from "holy German soil."

No Hope Of Stopping Advance

Apparently they had no hope of stopping the eventual triumph of the Allies, but were fighting to halt the advance toward Germany "right now."

More than five miles behind the more advanced U. S. armored columns across the Metz-Chateau Salins highway, the flag of the Third Army was seen.

U-Boat Base At St. Nazaire Under American Attack

LONDON, Nov. 13.—(INS)—American troops in Brittany have launched an attack against the Nazi U-boat base at St. Nazaire, the German news agency announced today, asserting the Yank troops had broken into forward trenches on the eastern side of the port.

There was no confirmation of the report in Allied quarters.

The Nazi DNB agency later claimed that the Americans had been ejected, and that the Nazi defenders had restored their front lines. The port of St. Nazaire is one of the last remaining pockets of Nazi resistance in western France.

Report Stalin Asks Moscow Conference

LONDON, Nov. 13.—(INS)—Premier Stalin reportedly invited President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill to Moscow for a conference before Christmas, the London Evening News said today.

(In Moscow, there was no immediate confirmation of the report available, and Soviet authorities, in addition, were unable to confirm an earlier report that Stalin, Roosevelt and Churchill would meet in London.)

PA NEWC Observes

Crowds which witnessed the armistice parade on Saturday night did a better job than usual of remaining on the sidewalk and not crowding out the carterway. The crowd stayed on the sidewalk during the entire parade.

Work of erecting the snow fences along the highways in Lawrence county is now in progress. The state highway department is getting ready for winter storms, despite the moderate fall weather that the district has been enjoying.

November 12 would seem to be beyond the golfing season, yet a number of golfers were making the rounds on Sunday. Pa Newc is informed.

One week from Thursday is Thanksgiving Day.

Water shortage is reported as quite serious on some farms in the county. Rain has been slight this fall, and some heavy showers are badly needed.

Youth Locked In Trunk For Week; Loses 20 Pounds

David Bourbonnais, 9, Of Long Beach Looking For Boy Who Did It

LONG BEACH, Cal., Nov. 13.—(INS)—David Bourbonnais, 9, was in the Seaside Hospital today, recovering from a week's imprisonment in the tool compartment of an abandoned house trailer.

He was locked in the tool trunk by an older boy with whom he had had a quarrel.

"Just wait until I see him again—I'll push him in the face," the lad declared from his hospital bed.

Juvenile authorities want to see the older boy, too. However, since David was unable to supply the other boy's name or address, the search for him is awaiting David's recovery.

Weak from hunger and on the verge of collapse, David was released yesterday by a passer-by who heard his pounding on the side of the trailer and his cries for help.

The boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Bourbonnais, had been in the narrow, cramped compartment for seven days and six nights.

He lost 20 pounds in weight. However, physicians assured his parents that he would suffer no permanent ill effects and promised them that he would recover fully.

HALSEY WARNS OF 'PHONY' PEACE HEELERS BY JAPS

the most furious air-sea engagement of the war, aired his views on the present state of the Japanese military mind before a group of war correspondents in his cabin aboard this flagship.

Comfortably dressed for the penetrating heat in shorts and an elbow-sleeved shirt that gave correspondents a glimpse of the blue anchor tattooed on his upper right arm, the seafaring tradition, "Bull" Halsey paced in front of his desk as he brushed aside with evident anger the delusion that we can do business with the Japs.

To the American people he had this to say:

"It is most important that you do not weaken back home now that complete victory is certain. We must keep on fighting!"

Halsey foresaw prospects of Japanese peace feelers in the chance that the enemy's big industrialists might be able to unseat the present military regime in the hope of saving their production plants from being bombed into oblivion by American saturation raids.

While not elaborating further on this possibility, he had previously told this correspondent that the motives behind any such negotiated peace offers would be anything but a true desire for peace and that the real reason would unquestionably be to accept a "paper" defeat now in order to prepare for a second attack on the United States.

lan purposes. It does mean, however, that the German war lords know that Metz is going to receive a smashing and devastating deluge of American artillery shells, to say nothing of the overlayer of hand-placed bombs from airplanes.

Your author saw the city of Soissons, France, after it had been evacuated under similar circumstances. In that case in the battle which followed, the French were victorious and drove the Germans out of artillery range of Soissons.

He will quote from his war diary portions of his entries as of October 21, 1917:

"The city of Soissons at this time was one of the most perfect examples of the horrors of war. The population had fled without warning or preparation. The evacuation had taken place some considerable time before our arrival. Everything had been left exactly as it was at the moment of the sounding of the alarm. In some houses the dining room table was set, food was still on the table. In others food was on the stove, but the fire was long dead.

"The town was at this time under shell fire. All of the civil population had been ordered away with the exception of a very few shopkeepers and the attendants of one hotel which had been allowed to remain open. Soissons was much damaged, hardly a section which did not show the effect of terrific artillery fire."

That is what may be happening in Metz today.

Metz is historical for the strength of its fortifications. Gen. Patton will win his objective, but the work out for him is as difficult as any that war can produce.

MANY RUMORS AS TO HITLER'S WHEREABOUTS

since last July 21, and when he failed to make his annual speech on the anniversary of the 1923 Munich beer hall putsch a flood of inquiry swept the German people.

The repeated assurance in the proclamation that Hitler's work at headquarters will not permit him to speak still failed to explain why his voice has not been heard nor his face seen since the abortive attempt on his life in July.

Written by Others

Belief in London is that the proclamation read by Himmler was written by members of the Nazi party rather than by Hitler. The Daily Express quoted Emil Ludwig as saying that Hitler's death "may be announced any day now."

Even as the proclamation was being reported by the Nazi DNB agency, the German radio was announcing another of Hitler's strange failures to appear at a public function. Radio Berlin reported that a wreath commemorating Nazi party members who died in the 1923 putsch was laid in Munich by Gieseler "for the fuhrer."

BAD NEWS!

ALONG with all the good news of victories abroad, comes some very bad news here at home.

Fat salvage collections are TAKING A NOSE DIVE in many sections of the country.

That can mean just one thing! Too many of us are letting the good news GO TO OUR HEADS. Too many believe that, with the collapse of Germany, we can relax.

Don't these people know that the battle of Germany is just one chapter in this global war—and that we still have a long, tough road to travel in the East?

Even the TOTAL DEFEAT OF GERMANY can't help us one bit as far as the fat situation is concerned. And for a specific reason: IT'S THE JAPS WHO HAVE OUR FATS.

Our fat shortage troubles began when Japan moved into the Pacific areas and cut us off from ONE BILLION POUNDS of fats and oils we used to import every year. The Japs are still there—and we're still cut off!

So we must continue saving used fats to help make up that loss. To help make the munitions, synthetic rubber, medicines, soaps and other materials needed to finish the war. WE MUST SAVE EVEN HARDER THAN EVER. So let's get busy and send the fat collections climbing up all across America! THE NEED IS SO URGENT, our government gives you 4¢ and 2 free red points for every pound saved!

So KEEP SAVING USED FATS UNTIL V-J DAY—the day when we can celebrate final victory over our last and toughest enemy—Japan.

swastika proclaimed what the Nazis had hoped was the new Reich frontier.

Typical German customs houses still dominated the highways approaching the Reich although most of them were yawning with huge holes made by Allied artillery.

In one of them this correspondent saw two dead Germans in the green uniform of the Nazi customs service. One of them still gripped his rifle in his nerveless hands.

Towns Are Empty

It sounds unconvincing as I write but it seemed that the German imprint somehow clung even to the landscape through which we jeered. Each town we entered was emptied of civilian population and there was a strange feeling of loneliness among the ruins.

In October, 1918, during the last World War, there were the same hollow shells of buildings and the Germans held the same area. The French army sat in mud holes around Nomeny some 10 miles to west of Chateau Salins.

The bombardment in the region of Chateau Salins in the village of Ville au Val uncovered numerous skeletons of soldiers killed in the last World War.

An interesting sidelight which now can be revealed is that many of the German pillboxes in this liberated region were defense points constructed during the last war.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our wife, mother and daughter, Sarah Elizabeth Kennedy, who passed away five years ago today, November 13, 1939.

BUSINESS GAIN SHOWN IN CITY

Further Expansion Of New Castle Sales Market Is Forecast After War's End

(Special To The News)

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—How does New Castle spend its retail dollar? What quality of market is it? How does its business progress compare with that of other cities? These questions, of interest to merchandisers and advertisers, are answered fully in the latest Sales Management survey.

New Castle, it is found, contributes more than its quota toward producing America's largest retail market—food—which reached a volume of $17 billion last year, equivalent to $128 per person for the nation. The local food expenditures, which were $8,048.00, represented $163 per person.

The business growth of New Castle since 1939, the last "normal" year in indicated by the rapid expansion of its total retail business, which rose from $21,053,000 in that year to $28,358,000 in 1943, a gain of 35 percent.

Improvement was shown by New Castle in the period in all four major retail divisions. Sales of food grew from $5,348,000 to $8,048,000, general merchandise sales rose from $3,427,000 to $5,388,000, apparel from $2,100,000 to $3,846,000, and drug store sales from $752,000 to $1,171,000.

Further expansion of this market is expected after the war when the large local savings resulting from greater incomes and from present inability to obtain many articles will find an outlet.

Veterans Dine On Armistice Day

Customary Dinner Party Of Veterans Is Held In The Castleton On Saturday Evening

Veterans of World War One and Two held their customary dinner party in observance of Armistice Day in The Castleton Saturday evening, preceding the parade.

Russell Allen, who was chairman, had arranged a good program, and with Ivor V. Davis presiding as toastmaster, impromptu remarks were made by a number, with Attorney William J. Caldwell as the main speaker.

Major Guy J. Wadlinger was elected chairman for next year, with Jimmy Fletcher as the permanent chairman.

railway 59 miles northeast of the Hungarian capital, had been taken along with Monor and 30 other towns and villages. Places captured included also the rail stations of Kismedel, Bologhaza and Tapolcszentarmos.

Malinovsky's men and armor, slamming against the Hungarian capital from the east, moved against the town of Jaszbereny. It has been converted into a defensive bastion guarding approaches to Budapest.

Advances were scored in all sectors of the 100-mile arc of steel closing in upon the city, the communists said; that only reconnaissance activity marked operations elsewhere along the vast eastern front, but mentioned specifically that Bulgarian troops, in Yugoslavia, occupied the town of Kumanovo.

The Soviet forces, according to the Russian communists supplement, landed their heaviest blows in the seizure of the important railway towns. Loss of Monor, for example, left the Germans in possession of only eight miles of track between Budapest and the suburban town of Ulloe.

The widest river in the world is the Amazon River in South America. Where it enters Brazil it is between one and two miles wide and gradually increases in width to 50 miles at its main mouth. The distance across the water from headland to headland, where it enters the sea, is fully 150 miles.

Legion To Plan Commander's Dinner

Arrangements For Entertaining State Legion And Auxiliary Officers Will Be Made Tuesday

Preparations for the entertainment of their Department Commander, William J. Rhoads, and also the Department Auxiliary president for Pennsylvania, will be made at the meeting of Perry S. Gaston Post, American Legion, in the Legion Home, Tuesday evening, Commander Lee R. Hanna announced today.

It is planned to have a banquet in The Cathedral for all members of the Legion and Auxiliary in the district, which will be followed by dancing and entertainment.

were conducted in front of the county honor roll at the court house, General Chairman Lee R. Hanna, of the Armistice Day celebration presiding. Mr. Hanna brought out that the men on this honor roll were the advance battalion of those soldiers who must all pass in review before the great commander some day.

Music was played by the band of the 16th Infantry, Pennsylvania State Guard, and a firing squad from the company, under the command of Lt. R. F. Galbreath, fired a volley, which was followed by taps.

The parade, one of the finest seen here in many years, moved out from Chestnut street, down Washington street to the Diamond, and thence north on Jefferson street, where it disbanded at the Legion Home.

Heading the parade was the Camp Reynolds band, a crack musical organization, and several half-tracks, which called attention to the present War Bond Sale now under way.

Many Veterans Out

There was a fine showing of men from the present war, and more veterans than usual from World War One, with the veterans of the Spanish-American War also turning out in full force, along with members of various lodges and societies.

Following the parade, the veterans repaired to The Cathedral where a dance closed the day's activities. Refreshments were served at The Cathedral and the various veterans headquarters, where open house was observed during the day. Members of the Ladies Auxiliaries aided with the serving of the refreshments.

General Chairman Lee R. Hanna expressed his appreciation to all who took part in the observance and made it such a successful event.

Jap transports and 13 destroyers as they attempted to bring aid to the beleaguered Jap garrison on the battle torn island.

Although the enemy's aerial resistance has increased, the American fliers and anti-aircraft batteries protecting American positions on the island knocked down 11 Jap planes.

Gen. Tomoyuki Yamashita's forces have proved to be tough, but not so tough that the American assault troops can't make advances, which was evidenced today by MacArthur's announcement that Mount Cataboran's heights were seized.

Yamashita's attempts to reinforce his garrisons already have proved costly.

One third fleet carrier strike also smashed a Jap convoy early Sunday sending four destroyers and six transports, with an estimated 8,000 troops aboard, to the bottom of Ormoc Bay, making a total of 20 transports and destroyers sunk in two days.

As the Leyte battle mounted toward a climax, MacArthur announced a further series of Fifth Air Force sweeps against Jap bases in the Philippines area, the New Guinea, Moluccas, Dutch Indies and Bismarck-Solomons areas.

Congress Will Meet Tuesday

Sessions Will Be Resumed With Many Projects Pending For Action

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—The "lame duck" sessions of the 78th Congress convene tomorrow with spirited legislative battles—but little concrete—forecast in the six weeks before a new Congress meets. Jubilant New Deal Democrats are expected to press for speedy action on liberal conversion legislation, but other measures may take precedence, with the result that a far-reaching legislative program will be postponed until President Roosevelt delivers his fourth inaugural message.

Some Propositions

Legislative prospects:
1. Action to be started on a program for compulsory military training of American youth in peacetime, but passage unexpected before January at the earliest.

2. Second war powers act expiring December 31 to be extended.
3. Sen. Overton (D-La.) to seek Senate passage of House-approved postwar flood control and rivers harbors programs but chances for enactment are slim.

4. Battle certain on further suspension of statute of limitations against those responsible for the Pearl Harbor tragedy, unless Army-Navy reports are made soon. Present extension of statute of limitations expires December 7.

5. New deficiency bill, totalling billions for war purposes, to be framed and passed.

6. Fight to be launched to "freeze" social security pay-roll taxes at present levels, thus averting one and a half billion dollar annual boost in these taxes beginning January 1.

7. Senate fight for equal rights Constitutional amendment and House fight for resolution favoring abrogation of British limitations on settlement of Jews in Palestine to be started.

FROSH TOP FIELD

First-year students represent more than one-third of the total civilian enrollment at the Pennsylvania State College.

WAR TOLL HEAVY

The Pennsylvania State College's war dead and missing now number approximately 180. World War I dead numbered 74.

Lieut. Wells Lewis, Son Of Novelist, Is Killed In France

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—(INS)—The death of Lieut. Wells Lewis, son of Novelist Sinclair Lewis and Mrs. Grace Hegger Casanova, was reported today. Lieut. Lewis, 27, was killed in action in France on October 29, according to notification received by his mother, also an author.

He enlisted about a year before Pearl Harbor and served in an anti-aircraft unit in North Africa, Italy and France. He was an aide to a general when he was killed. Dorothy Thompson, columnist and former wife of Sinclair Lewis, was nearly prostrate at the news. Sinclair Lewis was not immediately notified of his son's death. He was out of the city and believed to be in Chicago.

Will Discuss Camp Closing

SHARON, Pa., Nov. 13.—Camp Reynolds, which is to be closed Dec. 11 as a service force replacement depot, will be discussed this evening at a meeting at Mercer courthouse of Mercer County Post-war Planning Commission.

Commission members already have considered postwar use of the army post. It has been suggested for an airplane freight depot and also as a possible site for a state institution.

Dr. H. B. Henderson of Grove City, commission chairman, says reports of various committees will be heard at the Monday meeting.

Travelers' Aid society, which has maintained offices in Erie depot, will be one of the first USO branches to close.

While there has been a heavy decline in the number of soldiers attending USO centers in Sharon and Greenville, programs will be carried out until the war department announces its new plans for the army post.

THE PARENT PROBLEM

her supervisor or principal directs her to use speed drills.

For constructive help to parents and their school children in the grades, I have made available the 100 basic facts in addition and the 100 in subtraction, in a stamped self-addressed envelope which may be had by addressing me at 235 East 45th street, New York City. It shows how to guide the child at home to learn these accurately by heart, a few at a sitting, taking his good time at it, just making sure to repeat no number fact wrong. Even when the child must be tortured by speed drills at school, he will suffer less and be able to be more quick at school, if he has calmly mastered the facts with accuracy at home.

"Dear Dr. Meyers: I am the proud mother of 3 of the grandest kids around, and the wife of a pretty swell guy.

"Ye have very little money but enough happiness to make up for this small item. Your column has been a complete guide for many of my problems. My oldest is nine and my youngest two.

"Daddy reads your column too and has been guided by it many times. He and I are trying very hard to give them a good foundation. We feel that our companionship and love for each other are the base and we started building from that. We feel that today, more than ever, we need clear-headed and happily adjusted citizens. I like to think my job as mother is a profession. I want my children to remember the very best I can give them.

"Last winter a group of mothers in our neighborhood organized a study group. It was small but so successful. Parent education and P. T. A. should be one. I know your feeling about this having read several articles on it. As a number of us have been keeping a scrap-book of your articles we had abundant text materials."

FISH HATCHERIES HIT KALAMA, Wash., Nov. 13.—(INS)—Even the number of salmon to be taken out of the streams by fish hatcheries will be affected by the war. Due to shortages of help, Washington will take only about three million eggs this year, compared with three or four times that number before the war.

Tribute Is Paid To Gallantry Of

In Pacific Theater

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel DeStefano of 510 Canyon street have received a letter from Capt. David E. Skipper, commanding officer of the fourth amphibian tractor battalion, with which their son, Cpl. Philip G. DeStefano, was serving when killed in action recently, announcing that in memory of the gallantry of Cpl. DeStefano, the athletic field of their base had been dedicated to his name.

Mr. and Mrs. DeStefano had previously received a letter from the marine corps commander stating that Cpl. DeStefano had distinguished himself by his gallantry, and that further details of his heroic action would be made known to them later.

Enclosed with the letter telling of the dedication were two pictures, showing the dedication ceremonies, which were conducted by Lt. Col. Clovis C. Coffman, U. S. marines.

President Not Likely To Favor Shift In Game

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—(INS)—A formal treasury request for transfer of the December 2 Army-Navy football game from Annapolis to either Philadelphia or New York ran smack into an indicated "No" at the White House today.

Presidential Secretary Stephen T. Early had this answer for reporters inquiring about the possibility of shifting the game to aid in the war bond sales drive:

"I think that for the duration the president will keep the game on a community-limited basis."

Early did not amplify his statement but it was taken to mean at the White House that Mr. Roosevelt would not be likely to revise the wartime program of playing the contest at either Annapolis, Md., or West Point, N. Y., and limiting attendance to persons residing within a 10 mile radius.

Police Have Long Search For Boy

When an eight-year-old North Hill boy went to a motion picture show Saturday night and returned to a neighbor's home instead of his own home, the police's mother and sister went to police headquarters at 2:30 a. m. A search for the boy was launched.

One picture show man left his home and searched his theater. Another said no one was in his movie house when it was closed. Meanwhile, police searched and the boy slept in a neighbor's home. He was found by relatives at 5 a. m. However, police were not notified and searched vigorously all over the city until they went to the boy's home at 9 a. m., they said, and found him there.

Mayor John F. Haven said that police should have been notified immediately when the boy was found. "Whenever a child is reported missing, a search will be made. We expect the same courtesy from relatives as they expect from police. They should notify police the minute the boy or girl returns, providing the officers do not find the missing party first," he asserted.

AROUND CITY HALL

Property owners in Frank avenue want a sanitary sewer constructed between East Washington street and Bradner avenue. To obtain the improvement a majority of property-owners must favor the move, it was reported.

Upon motion of Councilman James Gibson, council approved plans and specifications for the construction of a storm sewer in Butler avenue to eliminate a water nuisance in the hollow near the Epworth M. E. church.

Next year's budget will be derived from an approximately valuation of $81,000,000, the same as this year. Councilmen are filing with Finance Director Albert Hoyland a list of estimated needs. They report that no large equipment is being sought. Several solons have expressed themselves as being opposed to any raise in the tax millage.

Charles J. Micco, East Garfield avenue, today was named a temporary policeman upon recommendation of Police Chief R. D. Hanna. Council concurred in the recommendation.

America's Ace Feted By Navy In Leyte Area

LEYTE, Philippines, Nov. 13.—(INS)—The navy and the army had a chicken dinner and strawberry shortcake together tonight—and for good reason.

Three days ago during the crushing Halsey raid against Jap shipping off Ormoc harbor, America's ace of aces, Major Dick Bong and his flying partner, Major Gerald Johnson of Eugene, Ore., were flying voluntary Lightning fighter cover over the battle scene.

They spotted six navy torpedo bombers being attacked by fifteen "Zekes" and tiny type fighters. Diving to the rescue Bong bagged two and Johnson three and completely broke up the enemy intercepting flight, allowing the navy men to press their strike successfully.

Admiral Halsey heard about it and communicated with Admiral William Scheider, General Douglas MacArthur's navy strawberry shortcake and ice cream for Bong and Johnson aboard Scheider's flagship.

"It was well worth a dozen combats to get a square meal," Bong commented, "especially after three weeks of bully beef and beans."

Air conditioning of the navy's submarines is made possible by a non-toxic, non-explosive fluorine refrigerant.

Sign of a good housekeeper!

SURE, there's a cobweb on that door. In a moment it will be gone with a flick of the duster. But right now, it's a sign of good housekeeping, for it shows that an unused bedroom has been closed off to save heat.

There's going to be some shortage of coal delivered to homes this winter. This isn't because less coal is being produced. More coal is being mined this year than last. Mine owners and miners alike are doing a splendid job. And there are ample rail facilities for transporting coal.

But certain grades and sizes of coal are needed for war production. And, in addition, your local coal dealer is suffering from a shortage of manpower, trucks and tires. So be patient with him and make the coal you get go as far as possible.

Be sure your heating system is clean and in good shape. Fire carefully. Pull your shades and draw the drapes at night. Close off unused bedrooms. For other suggestions see your coal dealer.

One of the biggest jobs of the C&O Lines is hauling coal from the mines along its routes, so we're in a position to understand the problem and to know how essential coal is these days.

New Castle Marine Risks Life In Rescue

Cpl. James L. Campbell Frees Comrade From Wreckage Under Fire From Snipers

(Special To The News)
PELELIU, Palau Islands (Delayed)—Marine Corporal James LeRoy Campbell, 29, of 809 Chestnut street, New Castle, Pa., risked his life to rescue a wounded comrade from the burning wreckage of an amphibian truck during the marine landing, September 15.

Corporal Campbell, member of a 37 mm. gun crew, was blown into the water when he heard a call for help from Cpl. Robert W. Jeffers of 165 West Park way, Newark, Del., who had been pinned under one of the 37 mm. guns.

Returning to the duck, he extricated Jeffers from the wreckage and dragged him to the beach while enemy snipers tried to pick him off.

"Campbell was nearly exhausted when he reached the beach," said Pharmacist's Mate 3-c Norman J. Fontaine of Fall River, Mass., who treated both men.

Campbell took part in two attacks on Suicide Ridge, a series of coral peaks from which enemy artillery and mortars continually pounded the marine lines.

Campbell and Jeffers, veterans of the Guadalcanal and Cape Gloucester operations, have been "teammates" for more than two years.

Hitler May Have Fled Germany

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—(INS)—Radio Atlantic, clandestine anti-Nazi transmitter, noted today that the closing sentence of Adolf Hitler's proclamation, as read by Heinrich Himmler in Munich, contained these words:

"And so I greet you from far away through the speaker Heinrich Himmler."

Radio Atlantic, heard by NBC, pointed out that the phrase "far away" is "certainly suspicious, to say the least," and went on to imply that Hitler possible has fled Germany.

Polish Boundary Issue To Confront Big Three Parley

By LEON PEARSON
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Failure to the Soviet and Polish governments to reach agreement on the future boundaries of Poland had resulted in dropping this explosive controversy into the coming meeting of the "Big Three" officials said today.

When President Roosevelt leaves for the meeting with Prime Minister Churchill and Marshal Stalin—which he is expected to do in a matter of days—he must be prepared to try his hand in settling a problem which has defied the conciliatory efforts of Churchill for the past year.

The problem has become all the more acute today because of the failure of Polish Prime Minister Mikolajczyk to win the support of the London Polish government for the proposals he brought back from Moscow last month.

It is now revealed that those proposals included an unsavory Soviet demand for all Polish territories east of the Curzon line. This was described as a fixed demand, not open to negotiation.

But this demand was found utterly unacceptable to the Polish government—unless Russia were willing to exclude from her demands the city of Lvov and the Galician oil district.

This is the suggestion which has now been dumped into the President's lap. It is reported that Premier Mikolajczyk cabled directly to President Roosevelt, whom he knows personally as a result of the premier's White House visit last summer. The cable requested that the President try to save Lvov for Poland.

L.C.U.S. Hears Rev. Fr. Inteso

Important Activities Planned At Program-Meeting Of Catholic Organization

Rev. Fr. Albert M. Inteso, recently appointed spiritual director of Lawrence County Union of Sodality, spoke at the regular meeting held in Ecclesial club rooms Sunday afternoon and asked for the cooperation of all Sodality members in the organization's activities.

Other speakers were Rev. Fr. Ignatius Koller, St. Mary's, and Rev. Fr. William M. Pisarcik, St. Michael's.

President Margaret Valley presided and Rev. Fr. Ignatius Koller, director of St. Mary's Sodality, recited the opening prayer. Helen Ryzca of ecclesiastical committee urged Sodality to pray for the poor souls during month of November. A tridium to be offered in honor of Pope Pius XII, who has been a Socialist for the past 50 years, was planned.

Frances Corio spoke on parliamentary law, and the union officers participated in a model meeting. Bernice Dellaverson, apostolic committee, conducted a quiz, with Mary Chill, Carmelita DeLuca, Betty Terranova, Margaret Valley, Frances Corio and Rosemary Schooley participating.

Rita Leonardo, Catholic Truth committee, spoke on Catholic books and pamphlets. Dorothea Donegan, publicist, spoke about the L.C.U.S. newsletter.

Charlotte Leonardo, in charge of the Union Bowling league, announced that games will be played Monday among the St. Joseph's, St. Mary's and New Castle Hospital Sodality.

Cathleen Blake, pianist, accompanied the group in the closing hymn, "Mother Beloved." Father Inteso closed with prayer.

Following an entertainment was held by the women of the Ecclesial club.

Officers will be elected January 14 at the meeting to be held in St. Vitus church.

Steps Urged To Prevent Germany Making New War

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—(INS)—The senate war mobilization subcommittee recommended today that Germany's industrial cartels be destroyed along with Nazi military might to prevent a third world war.

In a report submitted to the senate military affairs committee, the mobilization group declared:

"To eliminate the risk of another war the United Nations must not stop at removal of Nazi political and military leaders. They must destroy Germany's industrial leadership as well."

The subcommittee, headed by Sen. Kilgore (D. Va.), said Germany's industrialists "have worked long and ardently for pan-Germanism," and been hand in glove with Hitler and his lieutenants to achieve their ends. The subcommittee recommended that the United Nations take these steps:

1. Pool all information to get a complete picture of the German network of economic penetration.
2. Confiscate all German property in the United Nations, including the liberated nations and divest Nazi Cloaks and collaborators of their holdings and management powers.

3. Allied military commission should be decreed assume ownership of all German stocks in so-called "neutral" companies, and require neutral nations to turn over the management of these companies or otherwise give assurance that they have been completely purged of Nazi interest and control.

Jap Report Says Battleship Sunk

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—(INS)—Japanese Imperial headquarters claimed today that an allied battleship was sunk in Levite gulf, in the Philippines, by a Japanese suicide fighter-plane unit.

The Japanese Domei agency meanwhile reported that a lone American B-29 bomber soared on Ise Bay, in central Japan, on a reconnaissance mission.

Neither of the enemy reports was confirmed by allied sources.

Japan Slaps Back At Marshal Stalin On Agressor Speech

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—(INS)—Japan today slapped back at Russia in a "You're-one-too" name-calling contest, branding the Soviet Union as an "aggressor nation," just as Marshal Stalin several days ago referred to Japan.

In a broadcast entitled "What is the aggressor?" radio Tokyo charged that "all western nations—Britain, America, France, the Netherlands, Portugal, Spain and Russia—were guilty of aggression in the most heinous form two or three centuries ago," and that in modern times the Soviet-Polish war ranks among the "flagrant cases" of aggression.

The CBS heard the Tokyo broadcast which was regarded as Japan's first stern—even if somewhat oblique—answer to Marshal Stalin.

Plan Schools For Delayed Soldiers

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—(INS)—Many American soldiers in European campaigns will go to school in Britain while awaiting return to the United States after the fall of Germany, the American broadcasting station in Europe reported today.

"The War Department has given instructions for postwar schools to be established in every American camp in Britain," according to the ABSIE broadcast heard by CBS. "Hundreds of American soldiers who will not be wanted for the Japanese theater of operations will go to school in Britain while awaiting to return home."

The orange and lemon groves of Sicily and southern Italy have suffered little war damage, but practically all need irrigation because of the shortage of electric power—also mules and burros—used to operate the pumping plants.

Lawrence County Farm And Home News

By Extension Representatives, LEWIS C. DAYTON, Agriculture;
MISS LAURA PHILLIPPI, Home Economics

4-H CLUB OBSERVES ACHIEVEMENT WEEK

Four-H club members in Lawrence county join the 20,000 boys and girls of Pennsylvania who are in club work, to observe 4-H Achievement Week. This annual period is a time to look back upon accomplishments during the past year.

Recognition is due those Lawrence county girls who were enrolled in 4-H club work this past summer. The number enrolled in 16 different clubs totaled 202. The number completing projects was 176. Especially outstanding is the number of girls completing the "Service for Victory" goal in the clubs. 4-H Food and Health Breakfast club girls were responsible for 30 family meals, and 16 girls completed this goal. The 4-H Clothing club goal was to repair and renovate 15 garments; 105 reached that goal. The 4-H Child Care club work was to care for a child a total of 30 hours; 17 girls accomplished this goal. Other outstanding accomplishments were the repairing or mending of 2,880 garments, the pressing of 2,125 garments and caring for 40 children a total of 1,199 hours. This program of girls club work was carried on under the able direction of Miss Josephine Simpson, former home economics extension representative, and a group of 34 Lawrence county 4-H club leaders.

Boys and girls enrolled in Agricultural club work produced approximately 4,600 pounds of pork, 6,000 pounds of beef, 1,800 pounds of lamb and 28,000 pounds of capons. Vegetable club members produced about ten tons of tomatoes and 3,000 dozen ears of sweet corn. Dairy Club members are raising seven calves, using the methods which dairymen have found to be the most satisfactory.

The 4-H club members learn by doing and as they carry on their projects, instruction is given which will help them in their work. In addition to their project work, 4-H club members have assisted with scrap drives and have participated in many phases of the war effort. One of the most important contributions has been their work in the production and preservation of foods in addition to that carried on in their project work.

WOMEN ASKED TO CARE FOR KITCHEN EQUIPMENT

Every time a piece of cloth or household article wears out, is torn, or discarded, its replacement requires material, machines, labor and transportation that are needed elsewhere. To help homemakers extend the life of some household furnishings, the following suggestions are made.

Brooms—turn upside down when not in use or hang by putting screw eyes or rings in ends of handles. To clean brooms, dip up and down in clear water, shake well and hang to dry.

Carpet sweeper—clean each time after using. Remove hair and lint from brushes, hang or turn on side to avoid pressure on brushes when cleaner is not in use.

Floor brushes and mops—hang, using screw eyes or rings in ends of handles, or keep brushes ends up when not in use.

Electric iron—keep surfaces clean. If starch sticks to the sole plate, scrape off carefully with full edged knife—do not scrape surface. Avoid overheating iron—it is harmful and a fire hazard.

Appliance cord—grasp plug not cord when pulling from the socket. Repair a broken or frayed cord at once and avoid bending cord sharply.

Sink—don't pour grease in the sink or drain. To prevent clogging of drain, flush sink with hot water after dishwashing or other sink work. Use soap and hot water or a very fine abrasive in cleaning—coarse scouring materials leave tiny scratches.

Kitchen knives—keep in rack or partitioned drawer so edges won't be dulled by battering against each other. Heating knife blades destroys the temper of the steel.

Long Controversy On Record Making Has Been Settled

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—(INS)—Two large national recording companies today were making phonograph records of music both hot and sweet after a two-year layoff enforced by a dispute with James C. Petrillo's American Federation of Musicians.

The companies, RCA Victor and Columbia Recordings, Inc., began making platters yesterday after an agreement with the union was reached Saturday night. RCA led off with "The Trolley Song" and Columbia with Andrew Kostelanetz playing "Ave Maria".

The two firms, last of the recording companies to come to an agreement with Petrillo's union, signed three-year contracts whereby the union will receive a royalty on each disc sold.

Now that the Harvest is over—

HERE'S OUR FINAL ESTIMATE ON WHAT CANNED FRUITS AND VEGETABLES WILL BE AVAILABLE THIS WINTER

—and what you can do to make the best of the situation

Twice during the harvest and packing season just finished, Del Monte has reported that apparently there would be less canned fruits and vegetables for civilians this winter.

This picture hasn't improved, in spite of the industry's strenuous efforts to increase total packs. Both housewives and grocers will need to use a great deal of intelligence and patience in the months ahead.

To help, we are giving you the best answers now available to the questions you are probably asking about this whole situation.

Just what can you expect in canned fruits and vegetables?

The fruit pack this year came close to that of 1941, the largest in history—a magnificent job made possible by earnest cooperation of growers, packers and workers.

But greatly increased military needs have sharply reduced the civilian share of canned fruits. There will be  $\frac{1}{4}$  to  $\frac{1}{3}$  less for civilians than last year. In total, fruits will be available to civilians in very limited quantities.

As for vegetables, bad weather and manpower difficulties reduced the 1944 pack below last year's, while government requirements almost doubled.

As a result, the total civilian supply of canned vegetables apparently will be about  $\frac{1}{4}$  less than last year.

Will the end of the European war change this picture?

There could be a radical change in the civilian supply of canned vegetables if military quotas are reduced or substantial quantities released from military stockpiles.

So far, however, there has been no definite indication that the end of the European hostilities will enable the military to greatly change its requirements immediately.

What can you do to keep your meals up to par this winter?

You, like many other American women, have probably already discovered that sticking to a dependable quality brand is one of the best answers to shortages.

There are so many different Del Monte Foods that even when you can't find exactly the one you'd planned on, you may still find another Del Monte Food to meet your needs.

That way, you are always sure of the quality and flavor—less food is wasted, and all your meals are more satisfying.

What about your chances of finding Del Monte?

Again, we emphasize that all Del Monte Foods will continue to be apportioned fairly to our distributors throughout the country.

Deliveries will also be spread throughout the year, giving you a chance to find at least some varieties of Del Monte Foods on your grocer's shelves at most times.

Whose fault is it when you can't get what you want?

Certainly, it's not your grocer's! It's just an unavoidable wartime situation—one that makes things harder for him.

So continue to give your grocer your patience and understanding. It will help him serve you better.

Here's your quick summary of this winter's canned fruit and vegetable prospects

CANNED FRUITS

PEACHES You will probably be able to purchase an amount slightly less than half last year's supply.

PEARS Larger pack, but larger government requirements will leave civilians less than half last year's short supply.

FRUIT COCKTAIL Amount available to home front is about half of last year's limited supply.

APRICOTS A bumper crop will give you more than usual, even in normal times.

PINEAPPLE Harvest light again this year. You will get about  $\frac{1}{4}$  average 1935-39 consumption, and much less than last year.

CANNED VEGETABLES

PEAS Amount for civilians will be about  $\frac{1}{4}$  below last year.

CORN Bad weather reduced crop. Consumer should expect about  $\frac{1}{4}$  less corn this coming year.

ASPARAGUS Larger pack offset by increased military quotas. Still you will get only slightly less than last year.

BEANS Look for slightly less than you bought last year.

BEETS Packs not complete. Much larger government quotas. Supply for civilians about the same as last year.

TOMATOES Civilian supply severely cut by weather and manpower difficulties and higher military requirements. Probably about 60% of last year's supply.

CANNED JUICES

PINEAPPLE JUICE Only  $\frac{1}{4}$  to  $\frac{1}{2}$  of amount consumers would ordinarily buy will be available.

GRAPEFRUIT JUICE Very large pack was anticipated, but recent hurricane damage probably means you'll get materially less than last year.

TOMATO JUICE Big pack, but larger government requirements, resulting in slightly smaller civilian supply this year.

Labor Relations Board Examiner Holds Hearing

Petition For Election On Bargaining Rights At Johnson Bronze Plant Is Heard

With National Labor Relations Board Examiner Walter Wilbur hearing the case, a petition for election to determine bargaining rights in the Johnson Bronze company was heard today in court room number two of the Lawrence county court house. The petition is that of the United Auto Workers (CIO) but the American Federation of Labor asks to intervene through the International Association of Machinists. The Bronze Workers Independent union also asks to intervene.

The petition for election follows the recent order of the National Labor Relations Board discontinuing the Bronze Workers Independent Union. This order did not specify that an election should be held. This question depends upon the outcome of the hearing today.

The United Auto Workers are represented by Attorney Ned Smoller, assistant general counsel for the UAW, Reuben Peters, international representative, and Harry G. Delin, local representative of the UAW.

The Johnson Bronze company is represented by Attorney Joseph F. Castiello, Attorney Edward M. Flaherty and Personnel Manager Joseph F. Diffley. Alex Skundor represents the International Association of Machinists and Attorney Edwin K. Logan the Bronze Workers Independent Union.

If after the hearing an election is ordered, the way is opened for an appeal to the Federal Circuit Courts.

Court Street Home Damaged By Fire

Loss Of Around $500 Sustained In Fire Due To Defective Chimney Early Sunday

City firemen were called to the home of William Fletcher, 503 Court street, at 5:30 a. m. Sunday, when burning soot, which fell down the blind side of a chimney, set fire to the house. A loss of around $500 was reported by Fire Chief James E. Thomas.

Several other calls were received over the week-end and firemen had several calls for the services of their ambulance, also.

At noon Sunday firemen were called to the Cambria Slag Co. on Moravia street to try and get a dog out of a pit into which it had fallen. In the end, it was necessary to call police to shoot the dog.

At 4:40 p. m., second ward firemen were called to Leasure avenue and Neshannock boulevard to extinguish some burning leaves.

At 5:15 p. m. Saturday a call came from 633 Forest street, where a defective chimney allowed smoke to come into the house. No damage resulted.

Local Gideons Name Officers

On Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Mooney, of the Butler road, entertained members of the New Castle Chapter of Gideons and their ladies auxiliary.

The devotional period was conducted by Robert Chappell.

The following officers were re-elected, Robert Chappell, president; B. French Johnson, vice-president; Louis Mooney, secretary-treasurer; A. H. Robb, chaplain; Walter Bender, Bible secretary.

A report was given that twelve Bibles were replaced at the Broadhead hotel in Beaver Falls.

At the Auxiliary session, plans were made to place Bibles in tourist homes.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Robb.

The meeting was closed with the Gideon Circle, and Mrs. B. P. Johnson pronounced the benediction.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chappell, will entertain the local organization at their home, 836 Franklin avenue, on December 8.

Comedian To Speak At Exchange Club

Will Taylor, nationally known humorist, editor, publisher, columnist and former manager of Puck, will be the speaker at the regular dinner meeting of the New Castle Exchange club tomorrow night at 5:45 in The Castleton. His talk on "Laughter" has been given before hundreds of prominent clubs in the country.

Tomorrow night is guest night and each member is expected to invite a guest for the occasion, according to a notice given out by the secretary, L. J. Lewis.

Union High Dance Has Patriotic Theme

Dressing up their auditorium in patriotic colors, Union high school cheerleaders gave another dance for the student body Friday evening, with Miss Dorothy Wadlinger and Miss Angeline Venditto as faculty advisors.

The evening's door prize was won by Jane Barlett. Closing the dancing, the students stood at attention while the "Star Spangled Banner" was played.

The margins of many American rivers were covered with cane brakes in pioneer days, reminiscent of bamboo thickets.

War Fund Workers Expect To Reach Goal By Thursday

Unusual Interest Shown In Campaign This Year, Dr. G. S. Bennett Believes

Driving to reach the goal of $125,000 before the fifth report meeting, scheduled for Thursday at 12:15 in The Castleton hotel, United War Fund and Community Chest workers are expressing a confidence that is based on their experience so far in this campaign.

"This has been one of the easiest campaigns in which I have taken part," says Dr. G. S. Bennett, who has taken part in all of them since the Community Chest was first organized.

Never before have people seemed to realize the value of their contribution as they do now. Very few people have actually refused to contribute, and although some did not give what we felt they could, many increased their donation over the amount they gave last year.

"Another indication of the interest in the drive is the way people keep asking workers and chairmen, 'how is it coming?' and 'how soon does it hit the top?'" Instead of leaving the whole business to the campaign workers, people seem to take a personal interest in the matter this time.

Basing their expectations on the spirit shown so far, most workers are sure that those who have not yet contributed will do so within the next few days, putting New Castle well over its goal for this year.

DAVIS WOULD QUIT W. L. B.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 13. — The White House said today that President Roosevelt has received a request from William H. Davis, chairman of the War Labor Board, to be relieved of his duties, but that no formal resignation has been submitted by Davis.

During the World War I the greatest American transport was the Leviathan, which landed 12,000 men in France every month.

Brother Seamen Meet In S. France

Mr. and Mrs. John Oberleitner of 17½ South Mercer street have received word that their sons in the navy, Charles W. Oberleitner, M. O. M. M. 2-c, and John Oberleitner, S. P. F. 1-c, met in southern France. The meeting was on the invasion beach and the reunion lasted for about an hour.

The brothers have been overseas more than a year, in the Mediterranean area, and in a number of actions. This is the first time they have met.

ICKES DENIES LARGER GAS RATIONS NEAR

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13. — (INS) — Petroleum Administrator Harold L. Ickes today described as "unfounded and regrettable" a published statement that present fuel oil supplies will justify larger rations beginning next month or the first of 1945.

Ickes said that eastern and midwestern stocks have increased 3,500,000 and 1,000,000 barrels, respectively, over last year, but impending military requirements and threatening transportation trouble, plus civilian needs, will permit no change in present rations.

UTAH WORKERS ARE BEING SOUGHT HERE

Aircraft mechanics of various types, machinists, semi-skilled auto mechanics, non-skilled persons for mechanics learners, clerks, typists—all are being sought by the Civil Service Commission for work at the Ogden air service command in Utah, according to the local United States Employment Service.

A civil service representative will be stationed at the office from 9 o'clock in the morning until 5 in the afternoon every day this week to interview applicants.

Saarbruecken Is Being Evacuated Says Broadcast

NEW YORK, Nov. 13. — (INS) — The German city of Saarbruecken, some 20 miles east of General George S. Patton's hard-hitting armored units, is being evacuated of civilians, according to a BBC broadcast heard today by CBS. The broadcast quoted "civilian refugees who had reached the American lines."

SEALED INSULATIONWartime Crop Production Is At New Record

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—(INS)

Indications were today that this year's national wartime crop production will be the greatest of all time, bolstered by a corn crop of three billion 258 million bushels—four per cent above production in any past year.

Exceptionally good weather conditions through the growing and harvesting periods, accompanied by long hours of hard work by the nation's farmers, were held responsible for the record agricultural output.

Latest estimates by the agricultural department on the 1944 crop yield boosted the Oct. 1 prediction by 61 million bushels.

Also in the bumper crop class this year are soybeans, rice, grain sorghums, potatoes, wheat and buckwheat, the latter showing the heaviest production in 16 years.

Overall grain production is expected to hit above the 157 million ton mark compared with the previous record of 155 million tons in 1942. In fact, the department says, this year's total probably equals one-fifth to one-fourth of the usual world production of all grain.

Soybean production, estimated now at 194 million bushels, will be two million bushels shy of last year's record output, but still in the bumper brackets.

The forecast for potatoes has been raised over seven million bushels from the Oct. 1 estimate to a total of 338 million bushels, and there will be plenty of sweet potatoes—76 million bushels, or an increase of nearly three million bushels.

Dairy products, too, showed upward production trends with the egg output revealing an average of seven per cent more eggs per 100 hens than during the same month in any previous year. Reports on milk production showed the yield per cow five per cent higher than on the same date in 1943.

Although more milk cows are being well fed, the proportion being milked is lower than usual, the department said, particularly in the butter producing areas.

Lines of Communication

GROW LONGER and LONGER

Each new mile ahead in Germany and each new stepping-stone toward Tokyo lengthen the lines of communication—the lifelines of our Army and Navy.
This is why there is a waiting list for home telephone service today.
The producers of telephone equipment—let's face it—are making almost nothing for civilian needs. Instead, they're still making special communication and electronic equipment for General Eisenhower, General MacArthur, Admiral Nimitz, and GI Joe.
They've been at it for the past three years.
But Germany and Japan will be cracked. Then production will get under way and we'll dig right in.
It will take some digging, too . . . for after we get the equipment we need, there's the tremendous job of installation. Switchboards are intricate. They must be hooked-up without the loss of a heart-beat to the living mechanism of present service. Miles of cable must be spliced and laid. Thousands of men—many of them returned veterans of war—must tackle this job.
Meanwhile, you can count on this: We'll turn things upside down and inside out to get the job done. We don't like to keep anyone waiting for telephone service.

Will Form New Nurses' Aides Classes Here
Answering a very urgent need two more classes of Nurses Aides will be formed, one receiving instruction at the New Castle Hospital and the other at Jameson Memorial Hospital, the Red Cross Nurses Aide Committee announces. Instructors have been secured, and the program is in readiness.
It is urged, women and girls who can give any time whatsoever to this work, that they fill out an application and turn it in to the North Beaver street immediately. Applications will be received up until Thursday of this week. Interviews will be given and classes will begin training within the two week period that follows. Housewives especially, who can give daytime hours, those having sons in service, working girls, and others, can help as an Aide.
Red Cross Nurses Aides in New Castle and throughout Lawrence County have achieved a commendable goal for excellent work, the direct result of thorough training. Women interested will not only be doing a needed wartime job, but receive training of lifetime value.

Robbed Of $82 After Being 'Strong-Armed'

Later he was strong-armed by two young men, who robbed him of $82.00 by a third after which they knocked him down in Howard alley then fled. His face and shoulder were injured. Whoever waylaid him threw the billfold alongside his residence sometime Saturday night or Sunday morning, he reported to police.
Wojtowicz did not report the highway robbery until 24 hours later, according to police. He could give only a meagre description of the three men but did report two were tall, the other short and all were about 30 years of age.

Two Sergeants End Overseas Service
Staff Sergeant Joseph D. McNicholas and Technical Sergeant Everett W. Vogan have both reported to the AAF Redistribution station at Atlantic City after serving with the Armed forces overseas.

Making 29 combat missions, he wears the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Air Medal with three Oak Leaf Clusters. S-Sgt. McNicholas is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. McNicholas, 715 Cumberland avenue.
T-Sgt. Vogan served as engineer on a B-24 Liberator in the European theater for ten months. Veteran of 27 missions, he also wears the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Air Medal with three Oak Leaf Clusters. Sgt. Vogan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Vogan, 908 Marshall avenue.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—(INS)—Pat Robinson, international news Service staff correspondent, received his 1943 Christmas cards today—11 months late.

It happened like this: Robinson, who was stationed in Guadalcanal last December, had left that south Pacific base to go into New Britain island with the first wave of invading U. S. marines on Christmas day.

That very day, Robinson's New York office bundled all his personal mail, mostly Christmas cards, into a large envelope and addressed them to C-P Pro. Comsopac, South Pacific Force, U. S. Fleet, Fleet P. O. San Francisco, Calif.

Today he received the package. Back at his sports writing post in New York after two years covering the Pacific war, Robinson finally received the envelope that followed him half way around the world.

Search For Army Private Ends In Capture Today

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—(INS)—An eight-state search for Pvt. Kenneth R. Gurdin, 23, of Athens, Ga., described as "dangerously insane" by military authorities, ended in Washington today when he submitted quietly on a street corner to capture by metropolitan police.

Gurdin's wife, a member of the WAVES stationed in Washington, had been placed under police guard following reports her husband was coming in search of her after his escape from the military reservation at Indiantown Gap, Pa.

Previously, officials said, Gurdin told another patient in the mental ward he was going to get away and kill his wife.

He was found by Lt. Roy E. Bick of the metropolitan police and Lt. John L. Lang of military police, standing on a Washington street corner. They said he submitted to capture quietly and was not armed. He was turned over to military authorities.

Other units had reached Chateau Brehain, Dalhain and generally surged forward north of Chateau Salins.

Armored elements of the Third Army crossed the Vied Francais river, and smashed into the town of Herry, some 10 miles southeast of Metz.

Allied supreme headquarters at the same time revealed that General Patton's embattled troops on the northern flank of the line had restored losses incurred in a determined Nazi counter-thrust along the newly won bridgehead below Thionville in the Koennigsmacher area.

General Patton's troops, the German DNB agency reported today, seized the vital Moselle fort of Koennigsmacher on Sunday. DNB, admitting the loss, said: "After many days of direct assaults with superior forces and after exceptionally heavy drumfire barrages supported by large numbers of bombers, the enemy succeeded in overwhelming the worn-out and numerically weak garrison."

Doughboys Recover Ground

The German attack hurled the Yanks back nearly two miles. It was considered the most determined reaction to come from the Nazi defense forces since the third army push got under way five days ago. In a swift retaliatory thrust, the doughboys drove the Nazis back and consolidated their gains.

Further south, Gen. Patton's soldiers chucked up a small advance west of St. Die and east of Bruyeres. The advance swept over the villages of Lavolle Les Moirasses and La Chapelle, bringing to more than 60 the number of towns and hamlets occupied by the Reich-bound third army.

Foul weather, that included snow, slowed the ground drive somewhat and restricted operation of aircraft, but Patton's hard-hitting doughboys slogged forward over the mud-clogged terrain to close inexorably about the bastion of Metz.

American guns were within range of the city which the Nazis apparently are trying to evacuate before all escape gaps are blocked. Third army troops were moving into position to isolate the city and its garrison completely.

Front line dispatches stated that the Germans are blowing up dams on the canals and rivers northeast of Metz.

Speed of the American advance from the southeast, which gained half a mile during the last few hours to close closer upon the besieged city, apparently disorganized the Nazi defenders to the extent that a counter-attack which the enemy had planned was disorganized before it could be launched. Indications were the Nazis had intended to hurl panzer forces against Yank troops now within five miles of the fortress town of Com Sur Selles.

Germany's Transocean agency reported that General Patton's forces have established two bridgeheads over the Nied river—both between Sorbey, seven miles southeast of Metz, and Han Sur Died, seven miles farther to the southeast.

The efforts to close off all enemy highways of escape from Metz overshadowed other developments in the area. Metz was pressed from two sides.

One element of the third army was only four miles north of the city. Another Yank column pressed to within seven miles from a southeasterly direction following a smashing advance to the northward.

Observers on the front line reported that units of the enemy defense army seemingly are trying to leave the city. All types of army as well as civilian vehicles have been seen flowing eastward from Metz in long columns. There are two highways that remain available to the enemy for a get-away.

In the five-day Moselle drive, which sent Gen. Patton's army sprawling over more than 180 square miles of France and resulted in capture of 3,625 prisoners, the Yank troops moved under the noses of German guns at Metz. But the enemy artillery remained strangely silent, possibly because Nazi gunners were without aerial observation.

Nazi withdrawals were reported at several points along the front between Metz and Nancy. The enemy apparently was pulling back to the northeast, according to early dispatches from the front.

Supported by aircraft that ranged out on more than 100 sorties, Gen. Patton's ground forces took Oron and Fontenay, southeast of Metz, and pushed eastward of Haraucourt, some 25 miles below Metz, while, north of the city, they seized the town of Brieux and regained ground in the area of Kerling, 21 miles north of Metz.

Chicago-To-Europe Flights Sought By Illinois Governor

Governor Green Asks Aviation Conference That Direct Flights Be Made

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—(INS)—The United States delegation to the International Civil Aviation Conference in Chicago considered today a request by Gov. Dwight H. Green of Illinois that direct flights from Chicago to Europe be included in the plans for international post-war air routes.

The governor made his request in a letter to Adolf A. Berle, Jr., assistant secretary of state and head of the U. S. delegation, saying he had been disturbed to learn that in the route plan filed as an official United States proposal no Chicago-Europe connection had been asked for.

"The soundness of a direct Chicago-to-Europe route by way of fog-free Goose Bay airport in Labrador is, of course, familiar to all air-minded business men in America," the governor wrote. "Certainly the United States should include such a route in the proposal of routes needed for American commerce which it presents to other nations."

Questions concerning traffic by foreign air lines within a country, and the right of foreign aircraft to make technical stops were reported to have reached the drafting committee of the aviation conference following general agreement along the lines of proposals made by the United States and Canada.

Three Trapped In Flooded Mine Are Sought By Rescuers

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Nov. 13.—(INS)—Rescue crews worked today to reach three anthracite miners trapped in a flooded south Wilkes-Barre colliery for two days.

Mine officials held little hope of finding the trio alive and said volunteer rescue workers were not expected to reach the men until late this afternoon or tonight. The miners were trapped when a dynamite blast loosed tons of water dammed near a slope of the Franklin colliery.

Five fellow workers were saved from the water shortly after rescue workers began working toward the flooded section.

The men were identified by company spokesmen as John Dumas, 50, father of five children; Walter Koshansky, 40, father of six children; both of Wilkes-Barre, and Michael Geron, 28, of nearby Moosic, father of two children.

The water, mine officials explained, was used to prevent collapse of other shafts above the slope. A rescued miner said the trapped men were working at a level below the spot where the torrent of water poured into the shaft and there was little chance they escaped.

Nazi People's Army Members Pledged To Die

LONDON, Nov. 13.—(INS)—Millions of men called up for the German people's army today, were under oath to Adolf Hitler, pledging themselves to die rather than "abandon freedom and the future of my people."

The oath was administered to Volksturm members throughout the Reich, according to the Nazi overseas agency which reported that a segment of the people's army paraded in Berlin and heard Propaganda Minister Paul Joseph Goebbels proclaim that "almost the whole world has conspired to wipe the Reich off the map."

Goebbels in addition, called upon the German people to emulate their Japanese allies and prepare to struggle to "their last breath if necessary" in what he admitted is the last round of the war.

The Gas Flame is My Guide to Better Living

Gas that has done such a wonderful war job helping to turn out our weapons, will bring many comforts and conveniences to our new homes.

That Gas flame certainly is versatile and I've made it my guide to the better living we expect after the war. I've enjoyed its advances for years, but I understand that research will make all Gas equipment even better.

And added to the grand job Gas has been doing in home heating, cooking, refrigeration, and water heating, Gas is going to give us full scale summer cooling of our homes that will be the last word in healthful comfort and convenience.

My post-war home will enjoy all the new freedoms that only gas brings—with its cleanliness, convenience and economy.

P. S.—Buy and hold those War Bonds so YOU'LL be able to invest in new Gas equipment as soon as the job is over—over there.

FINAL CHAPTER

NEAR IN JEWEL THEFT ON PLANE

MORRISTOWN, N. J., Nov. 13.—(INS)—The final chapter in the mysterious theft of jewels valued at $92,000 from a transport plane en route from Los Angeles to New York will be written when a suit brought by the owner, Princess Farid of Morristown, is tried this week.

Princess Farid, former wife of millionaire five-and-dime tycoon Sebastian Kresge and later wed to Prince Farid Khan, cousin of the Shah of Persia, is disputing the value of the gems with insurance agents said to represent Lloyd's of London.

Months after the jewels were stolen and found in a junk yard cache in Amarillo, Texas, minus two links of a platinum chain and two men were arrested, charged with the theft.

ESCAPED PRISONERS CAUGHT

ALTOONA, Pa., Nov. 13.—(INS)—Martin Yon, 21, of Roaring Spring, and Andrew McGregor, 26, of Altoona, were back in the Blair County Jail today after 18 hours of freedom.

Sheriff John E. Harvey and state police apprehended the pair at Bellows after they made their getaway Saturday night while working in the jail kitchen.

Yon was sentenced to jail last October 9 for automobile larceny, while McGregor had been in jail since May 26, when he was recommended for parole violation.

Use Of Troops In Peace Plan To Be Problem

By FRANK B. ALLEN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Sen. Raymond E. Willis (R) Ind., predicted today that the issue of sending American troops into action on orders of an international peace organization will become a moot question before the United States has to pass on it.

Willis expressed belief Russia will dispose of it before it reaches the senate floor by refusing to participate to the extent advocated by the more ardent proponents of an international peace force.

"I believe the United States senate would go further than Premier Stalin toward accepting that plan," he added.

"Mr. Stalin is not going to let a word decide for him where to send Soviet soldiers."

Limited Authority

The Indiana senator would favor giving the American delegates on the peace council limited authority—with specific definitions of what is to be maintained in the world order.

"The question of what we would do to maintain the peace is linked definitely with the question of what is to be maintained—that is, the character of the peace treaty," he said.

"I don't think I am ready to give a delegate a blank check to send American soldiers anywhere in the world."

Willis added that "there is no time when congress is not ready to function quickly in an emergency."

Sees Conflict

Willis said the status of small nations in the peace organization may become a point of conflict between President Roosevelt and the senate prior to ratification of the world treaty.

The congress, he declared, will stand for equal consideration to smaller nations. Willis "Mr. Roosevelt has indicated he would give preference to the larger nations and let the smaller ones accept their decisions."

Voicing opposition to "blank-check" delegation of powers, Willis said that "we have given the president vast powers on the domestic front, and we can withstand any ills that come from them. But in foreign affairs we would be getting on more dangerous ground."

Chances Good For Oil Discoveries

The department of internal affairs has published a report optimistically pointing to the discovery of more oil wells in Pennsylvania. Pointing to the advances made in oil well engineering, R. E. Sherrill, an oil engineer, said it was probable "that there are so many different possible areas and horizons in which undiscovered oil pools may be that they add up to a strong possibility that at least some such pools are here." He emphasized he was not glossing over facts when he painted an optimistic picture for Pennsylvania oil drillers. "We would probably be too optimistic should we suppose that the average chances here are better, or even as good, as has been the average chance in oil producing states during the past 20 years." He said by drilling 500 "wildcat" wells, only about 25 would be producers.
